Kauffman Foundation

4801 Rockhill Road, Kansas City

A Benefit Run for Legal Aid of Western Missouri and the Public Service Programs of the LAKC Young Lawyers Section

Team Competition • Scenic Course • Free, Close Parking • Free Kid's Run

Course Description:

The 5K course begins at the Kauffman Foundation, continues west along the Brush Creek river walk to the west side of the Plaza, then returns to the grounds of the Kauffman Foundation. Runners and walkers are welcome—please, no strollers or pets. A Free Kids Run will be held immediately following the 5K along the grounds of the Kauffman Foundation.

Team Competition:

We encourage you to recruit colleagues, clients and friends and enter our team competition. The winning team will receive a commemorative trophy and pizza party!

Race Details:

Convenient parking is available in the Kauffman Foundation parking lot. Race day registration and packet pick up begins at 7:30am.

The mission of LAKC is to provide lawyers opportunities to volunteer in the community, improve the administration of justice and develop balanced professional lives.

We accomplish this mission through service projects, legal education, social events and forums addressing current issues impacting our judicial system or legal profession.
