The University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC) will host the third annual Kansas City, Missouri Public School District Spelling Bee in celebration of Black History Month.

Sixty fourth and fifth graders from the Afrikan Centered Education Collegium Campus (ACECC) will face off before a crowd of educators, government leaders, parents, fellow classmates and spelling bee fans.

All participants in the spelling bee will receive a certificate worth $1,000 toward admission to the UMKC School of Law. The bee is coordinated by the Law School and the School of Education.

UMKC, one of four University of Missouri campuses, is a public university serving more than 14,000 undergraduate, graduate and professional students. UMKC engages with the community and economy based on a three-part mission: visual and performing arts, health sciences and urban engagement.
