

9. Melvin L. Campbell (deceased) & [redacted] Melvin L.

b6
b7C

Campbell told [redacted] that he had been with Roy Bryant the night that Roy Bryant and J.W. Milam kidnaped and killed Emmett Till. Additionally, J.W. Milam related to a confidential source that Campbell was present during the kidnaping and murder of Till.

Melvin Louis Campbell was born on September 5, 1925. [redacted]

[redacted] was born on [redacted] and is the [redacted] [redacted] married Melvin

b6
b7C

L. Campbell on [redacted] In 1955 the Campbells owned and operated a small country store in Minter City, Leflore County, Mississippi. The couple lived in the rear of the store (like Roy and [redacted] and sold various household goods, food and automotive supplies, including tires.

Like the other family stores, the Campbell's store catered to the black community in and around the area. Melvin Campbell died on November 9, 1972. During the late 1980s, [redacted] worked in Roy Bryant's, store in Ruleville, Mississippi. [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] [redacted]

[redacted] [redacted] currently resides in [redacted]

[redacted] and is [redacted]

