Sworn Statement: James C. Wainscott

James C. Wainscott being produced and duly sworn on the part of the State deposes and saith that it was after broad daylight when he helped Caleb Cott in the ashes out of the fire when he was out of the stable on Sunday morning the 24th June 1865 that he called me from the other's when I was getting

Cherries and said if I would help him carry the ashes out of the fire from in the stable she would give me two dozen walnuts. we carried them out and deposited them on the right hand side of the path leading from the stable to the stable. I did not notice any bones in the ashes when we emptied them out of the

Spoon to the ashes and,

James C. Wainscott

Before us this 23rd day of June 1865

James H. White

James P. Howes